

Green Laws

Codes, Ordinances & Public Policy

City Planning Tools

Urban Forestry Institute
U. S. Forest Service
Nashville, Tennessee

May 2013

Eric Kuehler

Aubrey Hammontree

Andra Johnson

Buck Abbey

Planning the Urban Forest

Why are trees important?.

Public Policy & The Municipal Code

Charles Fryling Photo

Nyssa aquatica

Planning the Urban Forest

Quercus virginiana
Baton Rouge, Louisiana

City

Planning

How does it work?

As Set forth by law....

What is included?

What is left out?

Planning for Trees!

Planning the Urban Forest

Planning Tools

Comprehensive Plans

Area Plans & Overlay
Districts

Site Plans

Times Picayune Photo

Hon. President of The Live Oak Society
National Champion Live Oak
Mandeville, Louisiana

Ordinances & Codes

There are several types of green laws as well as other community policy that deal with community trees understand and know how to work.

They include:

Tree Ordinances

Tree Preservation Ordinances

Urban Forestry Ordinances

Other Green Laws

Building Codes

Subdivision Regulations

Zoning Law

Landscape Codes

Land Development Regulations, LDR's

Iris fulva

Planning the Urban Forest

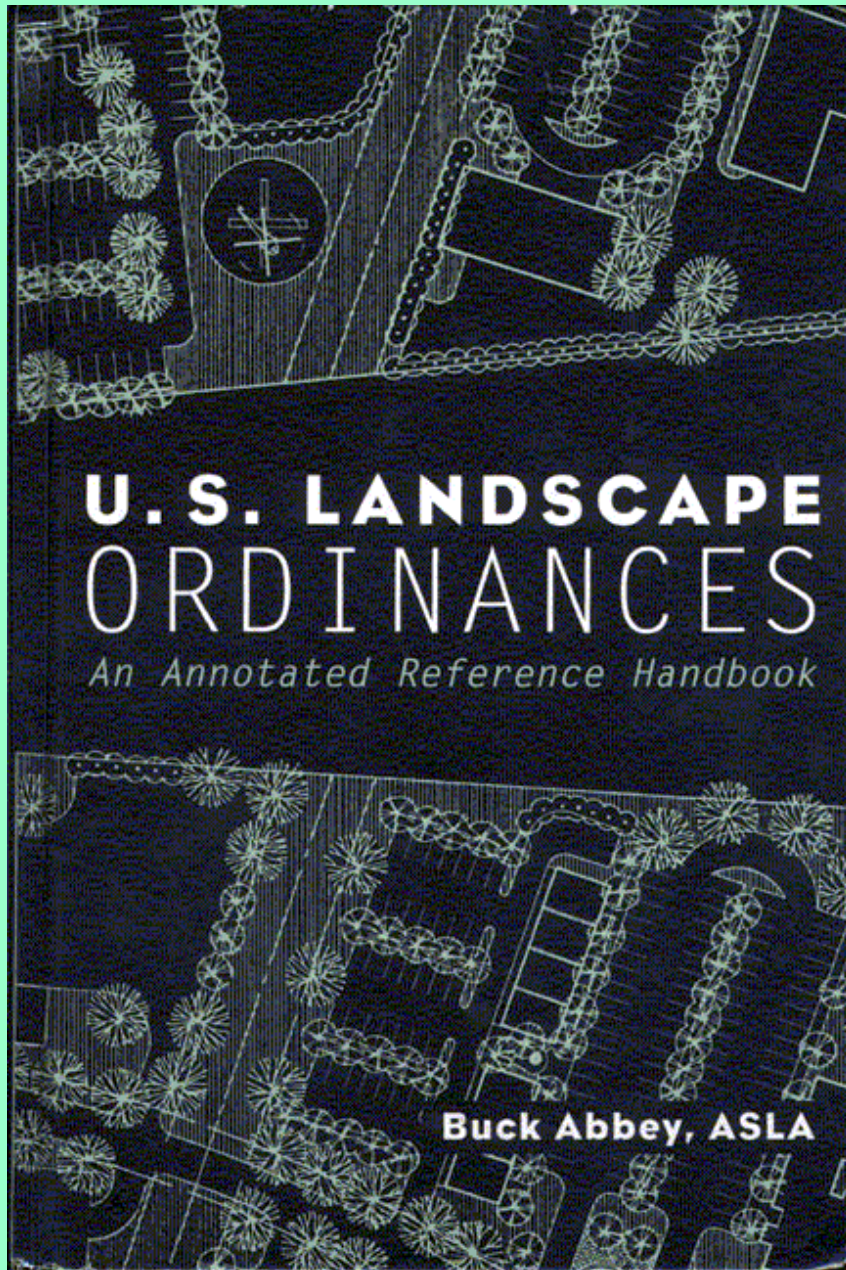

Quercus virginiana
Street Tree Canopy
Metairie, Louisiana

Q

&

A

Appreciation is expressed to John Wiley & Sons, Inc, Publishers, New York, for citing ideas and concepts from their book U.S. Landscape Ordinances

U.S. Landscape Ordinances

Carya glabra, Tree No 117

Blue Cross-BlueShield of Louisiana

Appreciation is expressed to the U.S. Forest Service and all people who are dedicated to trees and public landscapes

You are free to use this presentation for educational purposes as prepared by the LSU Green Law Research Project at Louisiana State University.

Please give credit for all photographs to The Robert Reich School of Landscape Architecture at LSU.

For more information call call LSU at 225.578.1434